The House of Fashions

Delightful Days Here--The Most Comfortable Store in the State

"This is delightful, just like Spring," said a lady at the opening yesterday. Beautiful flowers, sweet music, and Oh! the Hats, aren't they becoming? says another. Plenty of them, too, arranged so selections are made easy—very comfortable for shopping. Right—every one of them! Come in and see for yourself. And at the same time see the exceptional opportunities to be found in brand-new Spring Merchandise—stocks rising $150,000.

There is a Real Fascination in Wearing a Good Corset

One can see the dress, but can only sense the corset and it makes the figure.

To have the lines that are suited to the season fashions, one must have the right corset.

Let us show you the Redfern---you no doubt have heard of them and thought because they were "Genuinely Whaleboned" that you could not afford a Redfern.

You can-- they cost from $3 only to $10 per pair, and are actually better than the "custom-made" garments that cost twice as much.

--the latest Redfern models have low tops and very long skirts, but they are flexibly whaleboned--stripped into a wonderfully strong, pliant fabric--almost chiffon cloth in weave--so exquisite a quality. A Redfern for the best dressed women everywhere.

BEGINNING MONDAY

A Redfern Corset Demonstration

By Miss Wall, who comes direct from the Redfern Corset Shops

Parsons-Souders Company

Three thousand ladies attended the Opening Wednesday and Thursday.

They enjoyed it---appreciated it---and that pays for all efforts put forth to make it so

The impression has gotten out that prices are about half the usual cost.

That's right, 'tis time.

Not a whit less quality, nor style but a lowering of prices.

Caused by new methods that has reduced operating cost, and a determination to sell "correct millinery" at lowest possible price.

SOCIAL

Fairmont.
Mrs. Labadie who is to appear in Hoffman hall tonight pleased a Fairmont audience very much, as shown by the following taken from the Fairmont Times:

A large and representative audience assembled at the Grand opera house last evening to hear Madame Labadie, the famous dramatic reader, who appeared here under the auspices of the Fairmont Anti-Tuberculosis League. Madame Labadie proved herself the artist she is represented to be, and the audience was most appreciative of her work as interpreter of the Ibsen classic, "A Doll's House."

In fact it has been a long while since a Fairmont audience has been so thoroughly pleased as the assemblage of last evening, and the artist held the closest attention of her hearers from the prelude at the beginning of the first act, until the curtain went down on the third. Madame Labadie is indeed an artist in her line and together with her charming personality she is an entertainer well worth hearing. Her interpretation of the different characters in the dramatic production could not be excelled and altogether it was an artistic production and one that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Madame Labadie and her secretary, Miss Wulshire, will leave today for Clarksburg, and there she will appear on Friday evening under the auspices of the Civic Club. Madame Labadie makes it a rule to give but three readings a week.

Madame Labadie is now in the third year of her world's tour which it is expected it will take five years to complete and which is the most extensive ever attempted by a dramatic artist.

Saved from Dangerous Operation—Neighbor Advised What to Do For Bladder Trouble

"I too wish to add my testimonial to the thousands you no doubt have, and will tell you what your great medicine did for me.

Several months ago I was taken very sick with bladder trouble, had intense pains and suffered greatly, at times I could not stand on my feet or sit in a chair and often was forced to cry out with pain.

I consulted two doctors who gave me different kinds of medicine, which did me no good. It seemed as though the more of their medicine I took, the worse I became. The doctors seemed to be greatly puzzled over my case and after holding a consultation, it was told that I had a severe case of inflammation of the bladder and an operation was very necessary.

I was being prepared to be taken to the hospital, when a neighbor came to my house and said: "Why don't you try a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root?" I was willing to try again to get relief from my suffering. My wife bought a bottle of your medicine which I began taking and soon noticed a change for the better. I continued taking it and got better right along. My appetite returned and I was able to resume work.

I have used about fourteen bottles of Swamp-Root and know that had I not taken it, I would have been operated on, and perhaps never recovered. I never fail to tell my friends about Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as I know it will save many people from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation.
